

127 of Skiing in Utah – Courtesy of Ski Utah

Day 1- Interconnect and SLC

-Ski Utah Interconnect Tour- Experience Utah's Wasatch backcountry by interconnecting six resorts in one day. Tours depart daily from Deer Valley Resort or Snowbird Ski & Summer Resort, and are led through Park City Mountain Resort, Solitude Mountain Resort, Brighton Resort and Alta Ski Area. Cost of the Tour includes guide service, lunch, lift access and transportation back to point of origin.

-Savor dinner at the famous Red Iguana in SLC followed by an NBA Jazz game.

Day 2- Little Cottonwood Canyon

- Enjoy legendary powder and a first Tram at Snowbird and Alta

- Fly above the peaks for an unforgettable afternoon of heli-skiing with Wasatch Powderbirds.

- Toast spiked ciders at the Alta Lodge's famous Sitzmark Bar

- Swim on top of the Cliff Lodge followed by fantastic sushi feast

Day 3- Park City

Ski one of Park City's three resorts, Deer Valley, Park City Mountain Resort or Canyons. A morning of skiing would be topped off with a glass of whiskey and gourmet lunch at the world's only slope style distillery, High West. Enjoy an afternoon at one of the many world-class spas; Stein's, St. Regis, Waldorf, Montage. Dine at Deer Valley's famous Fireside Dining followed by a sleigh-ride. Take the Music Taxi to Main Street to party all night with Justin Timberlake at the Downstairs Bar.

Day 4- Ogden

Ski the 2002 Winter Games Downhill Run at Snowbasin. Enjoy a great lunch at one of their luxury day lodges and head to Powder Mountain for an afternoon of cat-skiing. Simulate Sky-diving and surfing at the Solomon Center. Toast great local brews over a fantastic meal at Rooster's Brewpub on Historic 25th Street.

Day 5- Southern Utah

Ski Utah's newest ski resort, Eagle Point, in the morning! Opening in December of 2010, this five-lift ski resort is located just west of the hamlet of Beaver, Utah. In the afternoon ski at Brian Head, southern Utah's legendary resort in the red rocks. After leaving the slopes, drive to Bryce National Park and enjoy a beautiful sunset while cross-country skiing through the red-rock hoodoos.